

SPLASH!

ETHELDA BLEIBTREY MAKES WAVES OF CHANGE

Read Along Activity

Instructions: Draw a line from the image in the story to the correct fact about Ethelda Bleibtrey.

Ethelda was the first woman in the world to win all of the swimming events in a single Olympics.

Ethelda's doctor suggested she try swimming to help her manage pain from the polio she had as a child.

Ethelda swam in the Olympics in Antwerp, Belgium

Ethelda became a nurse to help kids suffering from polio.

Ethelda was arrested for not wearing socks on the beach.

Ethelda swam in the Central Park Reservoir even though it wasn't allowed.

© Elizabeth Baddeley 2022

Splash! Ethelda Bleibtrey Makes Waves Of Change

WRITTEN BY Author ELISA BOXER • ILLUSTRATED BY ELIZABETH BADDELEY

ISBN 978-1-53411-143-1 • www.sleepingbearpress.com

This activity page may be reproduced for use with the express written consent of Sleeping Bear Press